We understand that in the event of Garfield's election the Pilot Knob Iron Company, the Iron Mountain Railroad Company and other corporations, will employ only Chinamen, except for bosses and managers, conductors and engineers.

The above is as true as that the works will stop if Hancock is elected.

If you want a free-trade President, vote for Garfield. He is a member of the Cobden Free Trade Club. If you are in favor of Chinese immigration, and the employment of Chinese laborers at 25 cents a day, vote for Garfield. See his letter, written last January, when he was not thinking of ever becoming a candidate for President. The letter will be found in this issue.

To Democrats: Vote the ticket straight, from President to Constable. The Radicals are trying to Republicanize Iron county, through the vote at Pilot Knob, and to that end have been for a month engaged with every art and device, from lying circulars to "scare" reports, to make the workmen vote the ticket. Do not assist them, in a single instance, in their attempt to overthrow the Democracy of Iron county.

Here is a specimen Republican report circulated in this county: "The P. K. I. Co. has made a contract to furnish 800 tons of iron, sure, in case Garfield is elected; but if Hancock is elected, then the contract is not sure, but subject to future decision." Now, of course, it's a silly campaign lie, and we know there is no man in Iron county who is fool and dunderhead enough to believe such a report. If there were, we would refer him to Mr. Walsh, President of the Company.

When the Republican leaders of this county are talking to the Irishmen who work at Pilot Knob, we'll bet they don't say anything about Garfield's course toward suffering Ireland. A resolution, on March 8, 1877, was introduced into Congress, expressing sympathy with the sons of Erin. Fourteen Republicans voted against it, and Garfield was one of the fourteen. How any Irishman who loves his native land, or is worthy the name he bears, can vote for Garfield now, is something we cannot understand.

The Republican leaders are trying to Republicanize the vote at Pilot Knob, and to some extent have succeeded. Lying circulars to the effect that in case Hancock is elected the works will stop and the hands all be discharged, have been circulated by the hundreds among the workmen, and every means that could be used by the Republican leaders, have been employed in their efforts to scare those people into the support of Garfield and their county ticket. Is there a Democrat in the county who will assist them by his vote? We do not believe there is.

When, in 1875, the Democrats captured the lower House of Congress, times were "hard," trade languished, and the manufacturing interests were dead. Republican rule had killed prosperity. But with the advent of Democratic supremacy came a silver lining to the sombre cloud, and as the days rolled on it brightened until to-day, with both Houses Democratic, the whole country is at work, cheerful and prosperous. And yet the lying Republicans have the "cheek" to assert that if Hancock is elected President, business interests will suffer, and hard times come again! They know better, and the Tariff issue is a cheat, a delusion and a fraud.

We learn that the Republicans of this county are trying to wheedle Democrats into the support of at least a part of their ticket, by asserting that "politics ought to have nothing to do with local offices," etc., etc. Did you ever hear of a Radical talking in that way in the good old times when they used to beat the Democrats by wholesale disfranchisement? Not much! Then they said a "rebel" (Democrat) had no right to vote, much less to run for or hold office. Additional point is given to the canvass by the fact that the two most prominent Republican candidates are ex-registering officers, and used to disfranchise the people whose votes they are now trying to win.

Vote the ticket, straight, from top to bottom. This is the advice we give to Democrats. Don't allow any Republican to wheedle you into scratching a single name. The Republican office seekers don't love you a bit better now than they did when you were not allowed a voice in elections. Not one of them has ever expressed a regret for your wholesale disfranchisement in the past, and if next Tuesday, you could be debarr'd from exercising this dearest right of an American citizen, where is the Republican who would not urge it as for the public good? Think of these things, fellow Democrats; profit by your bitter experience, and give the cold shoulder to all Republicans who are now singing sweet songs to Democratic ears.

Come Out and Vote.

Again we urge upon every Democrat in Iron county to come out and vote next Tuesday. An attempt is being made to Radicalize Iron county through the vote at Pilot Knob, and it is the duty of every man who believes in Democratic principles, to come forward and do his part in electing the ticket which represents them. Our candidates from Hancock down to the very bottom of the ticket, are good men and true. Let every Democrat who reads this article, make himself a committee of one to see that his neighbor does his duty on the 24th of November. We can elect the whole ticket if we perform our whole duty. Then let us buckle on our armor, and not retire from the contest until conquest is achieved.

A Republican "Free-Trader" Orating for Garfield.

Henry Ward Beecher made a Garfield speech in the Cooper Institute on the 13th inst., in which, referring to free trade, he said:

"I am a free trader [Cheers.] I am a free speaker, too. I believe that the philosophy of the future is free trade, and that all nations be to just to themselves must adopt it as soon as they can. The time is coming when nations will know no custom house; when there will be free trade among the human race all over the earth. When you hear of me, therefore, speaking on free trade platforms, you must not be surprised and think that I have gone back on my party."

It just now suits Garfield & Co. to pose as protectionists. Beecher more frank, but less politic, boldly proclaims himself a free trader, and still supports Garfield. In truth should he not? Is not Garfield an honorary member of the Cobden Free Trade Club of London? Read for instance the following from the New York Herald (Ind.) of October 11th, 1880:

"The President of the Cobden Free Trade Club of London, England, in a recent speech said: 'The trade is looking up. General Garfield, a candidate for President of the United States is pledged in the interests of free trade. We must forward our interests by forwarding his.'"

"Nothing can be said against free trade."

[Garfield, July 10, 1866.]

"Modern socialism is on the side of free trade."

[Garfield, April 1, 1873.]

Garfield voted to reduce the tariff on iron, wool and steel.

Beecher, an avowed free trader, is therefore entirely consistent in supporting Garfield. And yet the Republicans are asking votes on the ground that theirs is the party of protection!

Choose Between Them.

Below we publish two letters, one from the pen of Gen. Hancock, and the other from James A. Garfield. It is true Mr. G. denies that he wrote the letter over his signature; but that, in view of the evidence to support it, amounts to nothing. He swore to a lie in the Credit Mobilier matter (according to the unanimous say-so of a Republican committee), in 1873, and we have no reason to believe his word worth any more now than it was then. Read the letters, ye laboring men, and then decide whom you will support—Hancock or Garfield.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The following correspondence is made public to-night:

MORRISTOWN, Oct. 11, 1880.

MY DEAR GENERAL—My attention is called to-day to an interview or reported interview had with you by a person representing the Patent Guardian of this State. As I read the report it seems to me you were very imperfectly understood or very indifferently reported. I came to this conclusion because of my knowledge of your views upon the tariff question. The report does you injustice. The subject is one which our manufacturing friends are very solicitous about, and very properly. I regret that your views upon the tariff question, as I understand them to be, had not found fuller expression in your letter of acceptance, and if the misrepresentations of your tariff views continue, would it not be wise and just to take some occasion to put yourself right?

Very truly yours,
THEO. F. RANDOLPH.

To Gen. W. S. HANCOCK, Governor's Island.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, October 12.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR—I have received your favor of the 11th inst. In my letter of acceptance I expressed my full sympathy with our American industries. I thought I spoke plainly enough to satisfy our Jersey friends regarding tariff views. I am too sound an American to advocate any departure from the general features of a policy that has been largely instrumental in building up our industries and keeping Americans from the competitions of the underpaid labor of Europe. If we intend to remain honest and pay the public debt as good people of all parties do, and if we mean to administer the functions of government, then we must raise revenue in some way or other. With a united and harmonious country we shall certainly in time pay off the public debt, but the necessity of raising money for the administration of the government will continue as long as human nature lasts; and all parties agree that the best way for us to raise revenue is largely by the tariff. So far as we are concerned, therefore, all talk about free trade is folly. But the tariff question will probably be treated with justice to all our interests and people by some such bill as Eaton's. I believe that a commission of intelligent experts, representing both the Government and American industries, will suggest tariff measures that will relieve us of any cruelities and inequities existing in our present laws, and confirm to us a system which will be judicious, just, harmonious and financially protective as well as stable in its effects.

I am very truly yours,

W. S. HANCOCK.

[Signed] THEO. F. RANDOLPH, Morristown, N. J.

[Personal and confidential.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 25, 1880.

DEAR SIR—Years in relation to the Chinese problem came duly to hand. I take it that the question of Chinese immigration is only a question of private and corporate economy, and individuals or companies have the right to buy labor where they can get it cheapest. We have a treaty with the Chinese government which should be religiously kept until its provisions are abrogated by the action of the general government, and I am not prepared to say that should be abrogated until our great manufacturing interests are conserved in the matter of labor.

Very truly yours,

J. A. GARFIELD.

[Signed] H. L. MOREY, Employers' Union, Lynn, Mass.

The original letter is in the N. Y. Truth's possession. It was mailed at Washington by the Republican candidate for President to Henry L. Morey, a prominent member of the Employers' Union, Lynn, Massachusetts. At his death, which recently occurred, it was found among his effects. The envelope inclosing it, the original of which is also in Truth's possession, is marked "Personal" as carefully as the letter itself is marked "Personal and confidential."

Garfield's Grammar and his Memory.

[From the Republican.]

A dispatch purporting to be from J. A. Garfield, dated at Mentor, O., Oct. 22, denounces the "so-called Morey letter" as a bold forgery, and another, claiming to be from the same, says: "Within the last hour the mail has brought me the lithographic copy of the forged letter. It is the work of some clumsy villain who cannot spell nor write English, nor imitate my handwriting."

Now, this is a grave charge against the lithographer. We do not see why that person may not have made a good copy of the alleged forged letter without being able to spell or write English—or Hancock either, for that matter. But, taking it for granted that the dispatch aforesaid, signed J. A. Garfield, is not a bold forgery, in spite of its clumsy syntax, we must recollect that this is not the first denial that gentleman has made relative to his record. Here, for instance, is the case of the Credit Mobilier. The left-hand column shows the memorandum of Oakes Ames, and the account established before the Poland committee, and the right-hand column the denial by Garfield, under oath.

THE OATH.	THE DENIAL.
J. A. G. Dr. To ten shares Credit Mobilier of A. $1,000 Interest, $20 June 19—To cash, 225 Total, $1,225	"I state, explicitly, that no one ever gave, or offered to give me, any shares of stock in the Credit Mobilier or the Union Pacific Railroad."
1868—By dividend bonds Union Pacific R. R. $100 at 50 per cent., less 3 per cent. 775 June 17—By dividend collected for your account, 600 Total, $1,375	"I have never received nor had tendered to me any dividends in cash stock or bond accruing upon any stock in either of said organizations. I never received a dollar in bonds or stocks or dividends."

He is a Third-Term Man.

[From the N. Y. Sun.]

Assured by Belknap, Babcock, Boas Shepherd and others.

He is a third-term man!

For he himself has said it.

And it's greatly to his credit.

That he is a third-term man.

Although last June he beat us.

We know he means to treat us.

As well as ever he can.

For he agreed at Mentor.

And promised our Head Centre.

To be a third-term man.

He is a third-term man!

To Blaine he might surrender.

To Washburne might be tender.

O even to John Sherman.

But fear of Indiana.

Was what was hurting Hannenh.

And straight to us he ran.

And now that we have got him.

Just where we want to spot him.

He is a third-term man.

He is a third-term man!

For he has promised duly.

To run things well and truly.

To help the imperial plan.

'Tis not what he expected.

Or the style that he affected.

When this campaign began.

But now at last we've got him.

Have banished fear and bought him.

And he is a third-term man.

He is a third-term man!

The Haynes and the Shermans.

Carl Schurz and other Germans.

And all that foolish clan.

May grit their teeth and gnash them.

But we are bound to smash them.

And put them under the ban.

For we are bound to cunning.

The candidate are running.

And he is a third-term man.

Mistakes Should Be Corrected.

Particularly the practice of taking medicine into the system by way of the stomach for diseases of the kidneys. It is an old remedy, well tried and proven inefficient. The true method is absorption, as proven by the great success of Day's Kidney Pills.

I had no faith in your mode of treating diseases of the kidneys until I tried it, and cured myself of a complaint that the doctor pronounced incurable. These are the words of thousands who use the Day Kidney Pills.
